

7DSN MAJESTIC NEPAL HIMALAYAN RETREAT

DAY 1: ARRIVAL AT KATHMANDU TO NAGARKOT

Arrive Tribhuvan International Airport and let the experience begin! A traditional Nepali welcome mark the start of your magnificent journey. Start with tour of Pashupatinath temple. The temple is reserved as one of the most important pilgrimage sites for Hindu devotees all around the world. Wooden Sculptures, Statues and different carvings dedicated to the Hindu god, Shiva as well as other deities in the complex represent the temple's richness in art. The temple lies on the bank of the sacred Bagmati River while aryaghat, a place built for cremating the bodies of Hindus, also lies near. The sacred temple has been listed in the UNESCO's World heritage site. Non-Hindus are strictly prohibited from entering the temple. Continue with the tour by visiting Boudhanath Stupa. The Stupa is one of the important pilgrims for Buddhists. The Stupa is surrounded by one hundred and eight small niches accommodating the icons of Buddhas, Bodhisatavas and other female deities. The serene environment in the surrounding of the Stupa has added to its attractions. Listed in the UNESCO's world heritage site, the huge sized stupa is one of the prime sites for tourists and pilgrims. Drive for an hour to Nagarkot hill station. Nagarkot situated at a distance of 32 km from Kathmandu is a favorite destination for tourists for viewing sunrise, sunset, and a magnificent view of the Langtang range. Green hills, clean and fresh environment, and the unobstructed views of Langtang range are the main features of Nagarkot.
